HONGKONG, THURSDAY, MAY 14, 1903.

INTERNATIONAL COURTESIES.

Some weeks since we printed a Reuter's telegram announcing that President Loubet had conferred the Legion of Honour on the Admiral and nine officers of the squadron at Algiers. According to the London Telegraph, this is the first time for fifty years that a British Naval Officer has been allowed to accept a French decoration. This was followed by wires regarding the King's visit to Paris and the desire on the part of France to omit nothing in paying fitting honour to His Majesty. The event was happily consummated and the King expressed himself highly gratified with his reception, not only by the officials, but by the general public. We must all recognise that diplomatic arrangements should never succeed in diverting English sentiments of sincere cordiality towards France, who has associated herself so unreservedly with the tour of our King. The enthusiasm which the recent royal visit to Paris aroused illustrates in a very practical way the advantage of personal connection between the representatives of great nations as a means of cementing political good will. There is no excuse for being unfriendly with the French. When our interests clash, as they may do in the far East, it is mainly the result of misunderstandings which have no real relation either to France or to England. But the recent decorations of British Naval Officers by President Loubet and the rapprochement of France and England at the present juncture on the occasion of the King's visit to Paris, revive the memory of one or two noteworthy incidents during the last Napoleonic war which indicate the existence of mutual esteem and appreciation of two brave and civilized nations destined by nature to lead the van of peace and progress throughout the world. During the masterly retreat of Massena from the Lines of Torres Vedras before the advance of our "Sepoy General" in the Peninsula war, both armies as if by mutual consent ceased fighting and rested from the heat of the sun in the midst of a deadly struggle one on each side of a small brook or river when the bugles sounded "cease firing." This small respite was employed by "Tommy Atkins" and "Mies Infants" of Napoleon in quenching thirst and in exchanging civilities by offering brandy flasks and tobacco and such other kindly and well-meant offices which tend to soften our nature, until the order to "stand at arms" was bugled in both armies and these war dogs once more stood face to face in deadly hostilities at the call of duty as if the friendly interchange of half an hour ago, was a matter of course. Surely chivalry and innate bravery can go no further. Shortly after the conclusion of the Treaty of Paris, when Rear-Admiral Suffren of the French Navy was returning to Europe with his ships which were lately harassing British merchantmen, and East-Indiamen in the Indian Ocean and all over the China Seas, and having had occasion to call at the Cape for some indispensable repairs, a number of British high officers of the squadron which happened to be staying at the Port, voluntarily waited and called on the gallant French seaman to express to him their sense of esteem and admiration for his tact, bravery and sagacity in handling his vessels, and of his perspicacious ubiquity and presence in places where least expected. The reply of the Vice-Admiral was characteristic of the politeness and chivalry of the nation to which he belonged. He said that he was truly rejoiced to receive and meet the members of the same profession (to which he himself had the honour to belong) of a gallant and world-admired nation, and such words of esteem and praise from the mouths of such gentlemen as British Naval Officers were worth living for.

Mr. R. J. Gross, of The American Locomotive Company, has come on a tour of the Orient, where he will study carefully the exact conditions in the countries he visits.

THE King's oldest subject died on April 4th at St. Peter's Port, Guernsey. Mrs. Margaret Neve, the deceased lady, had lived in five reigns and was in her 111th year.

EVAR cargo now shows canned salmon moving to the Orient from the Pacific coast. A year ago such movement was unknown. Salmon is selling now in the Orient as California canned fruits sold in Europe when they began to be exhibited there.

ACCORDING to our Portuguese contemporary O Patriota the lease of the "Boa Vista" Hotel at Macao to Mr. W. Farner, by the Santa Casa da Misericordia, will not be ratified by the Provincial Government.

A "pay-for-your-own-drink" league has been formed in England. It has for its object the abolition of the indiscriminate practice of "asking back" when men meet together for refreshment. Members of the league are liable to certain penalties for infringing the rules.

FOR sailing vessels, prompt loading at Northern Pacific ports, lumber rates were as follows on 12th ult. Hongkong, 40s; Shanghai, 37s 6d @ 40s; Port Arthur, 40s; Tientsin, 40s; Taku, 41s 6d; Newchwang, 40s; Japan, 37s 6d; Manila, 40s @ 41s 6d; Calcutta, 47s 6d; Vladivostok, 41s.

THE observant commercial interest will be struck with the constant news of railroad development in China and Japan, remarks an American exchange. An enormous increase in general foreign demand is to result. The effect of Yokohama's railroads threatening Japan is being felt in increased wants of foreign goods.

THE Sin Wan Pao again gathers that Prince Ching and Chu Hung-chi of the Wuyungpu propose to telegraph to the various Viceroy and Governors instructing them to investigate and report as to the benefit of the dollar currency in sub-prefectures and districts where dollars are used, and what should be the definite and uniform exchange values between the silver dollars and copper coins which would be most suitable and convenient for commerce and trade.

THE British steamship Achilles, the first of the Blue Funnel line to cross the Pacific, arrived in port last evening from Tacoma. She is one of the Ocean Steamship company's vessels, but is running in the Tacoma-Liverpool line with the China Mutual Steamship and Navigation company's white funnel freighters, both companies being adjunct organizations of the great English shipping firm of Alfred Holt and Co. of Liverpool. Messrs. Butterfield and Swire are the local agents.

THE Shawmut, left Tacoma with a rich cargo of about 18,000 tons measurement. The flour shipments alone amounted to 44,375 barrels, of the value of nearly $200,000. The total value of the cargo would be nearly twice that amount, and all told, the cargo is one of the most valuable shipped from the Sound in many months. She is bringing to Hongkong 62,000 sacks of flour, 165 cases of cigarettes and tobacco, 315 cases of beer and 26 cases of oleomargarine. For Manila she has 180,000 feet of lumber and 3 carloads of machinery.

C. E. LeMunyon has an announcement to make to you very shortly; watch for it.—Advt.

THE annual meeting of the Fire Insurance Association of Hongkong was held this afternoon.

CHIAN Wing, a notorious character, was sentenced by Mr. F. A. Hazland this morning, to one year's hard labour for returning from banishment.

FOR stealing some blankets during the recent fire at No. 127 Connaught Road, a native was sentenced, by Mr. F. A. Hazland, to two weeks' imprisonment.

CAPTAIN G. F. Morrison, of the s.s. Pyram, charged a native seaman with deserting the vessel in the waters of the Colony, and this morning Mr. Kemp ordered the deserter to return to the vessel.

FOR making three captures in connection with the attempted burglary from a pawn shop at No. 7 Cross Street, as reported in our issue of the 3rd instant, Chinese P.C. 310, Lai Leung, has been specially commended.

REPLYING to a question in the Dominion House of Commons Sir Wilfrid Laurier characterized as unauthorized the statement that Canada intended to station training cruisers in the Atlantic and Pacific and on the Great Lakes.

THIS morning officers of the Sanitary Board and the cleansing gang were busily at work in the Indian and Chinese quarters of the Central Police Station, where two cases of plague had occurred. Two con tables, one an Indian and the other a Chinese, had been attacked and were removed to hospital.

THE case in which Fong Fook Ling and Fong Keong, tallymen, of the s.s. Amira were charged by Captain C. J. Mattock with stowing away passengers came on for hearing before Mr. J. H. Kemp this afternoon. Mr. Heavis, of Messrs Wilkinson and Crist, appeared for the defence, and Mr. J. Hastings, of Messrs. Deacon and Hastings, for the prosecution. The case was further adjourned till the 21st instant.

MR. Seddon, the Premier, announced that the revenue of New Zealand, for the past financial year has exceeded the estimated revenue by £300,000. The imports have amounted to £1,150,000 and the exports to £1,500,000, this being a record for the colony. He says that in its next session Parliament will have to consider the question whether New Zealand shall have a State bank with a note issue, whether there shall be a partnership between the colony and the Bank of New Zealand, or whether the colony shall withdraw as quickly as possible from the bank and leave it to the shareholders.

AT about six o'clock yesterday afternoon the neighbourhood of Wellington Street presented a very unusual sight. Police whistles were being blown and large number of gesticulating natives standing about. On the approach of an Indian constable, it was found that Mr. Oswald Waddell, who styled himself a commission agent, was struggling with a native. From the evidence this morning at the Magistrate, before Mr. F. A. Hazland, it appeared that Waddell, who had ordered a pair of shoes from No. 68 Wellington Street, some time ago, went for them yesterday afternoon. The shoes were not forthcoming and Waddell, it is alleged, started smashing up the shop. The magistrate adjourned the case.

ON April 26th a report was made to the Police at Kowloon, to the effect that No. 57, Elgin Road, had been mysteriously entered and a pillow box containing $350 was missing. The same night, a native was taken to the station on suspicion, but owing to the want of evidence was discharged. He was watched by the Police, and it was discovered that, although a poor man previously, he appeared in a silk long coat and other fineries. This fact made the police search his belongings in No. 66, Macdonald Road, where there was discovered no less than $70 in 20 cent pieces. He was formally charged this morning before Mr. J. H. Kemp with larceny, and his wife with receiving stolen property. The case was adjourned till the 19th instant.

BEFORE Mr. F. A. Hazland this morning, Ho Yan, a native was charged with stealing $132.77 from the master of No. 1, Tsui In Lane, and was sentenced to three months' hard labour. The facts, which lead to his arrest, are very interesting. It appears that on the 20th April, Ho Yan went to No. 1, Tsui In Lane, and stayed with a friend of his named Lee Kwong. On the morning of the 10th May, Lee Kwong found that his master's box was open, and the above amount stolen. From the evidence it seems that after stealing the money, Ho Yan sent the sum to a Lum Sing, and instructed him to hand it over to Chan Liu, of No. 11 Wellington Street. Not satisfied as to the honesty of the third party, Ho Yan paid him a visit, and managed to get the greater part of the money, and at the same time sent a native girl to Lee Kwong, his first friend, with $5.60 as hush money. He made an appointment to meet him at a shop in Chinese Street. Lee Kwong, however, was away in Canton, and the master of the shop, who was also a partner of No. 1, Tsui In Lane, where the money was stolen, received the amount and the letter. The police were immediately notified and a detective was sent to meet Ho Yan at the appointed place. Ho Yan was there to time, but instead of seeing his friend rushed into the arms of the detective, with the above result.

Watch for C. E. LeMunyon's locals in this paper in a few days.—Advt.

THE will of Miss A. E. Bayly, 'Edna Lyall', the well-known novelist, who died on February 8, is proved by her brother-in-law, the Rev. H. G. Jameson, 6, College-road, Eastbourne, and Mr. S. G. Sloman, of Farnham. The estate is sworn at £25,066. She leaves £100 to the Delhi Medical Mission, and the copyright of her works in trust for the benefit of the children of her sister, Mrs. Jameson.

BY kind permission of Major Radcliffe and officers of the Band of the 33rd Burma Infantry will play the following programme of music in the King Edward Hotel during dinner to-morrow Friday, the 15th instant, from 7.30 to 9.30 p.m. (weather permitting).

PROGRAMME. March....."The Rifle Regiment".....Souza Overture....."The Tancroft".....Rossini Selection....."The Gipsy".....Sidney Jones Unice....."Hungarian".....Brahms Selection....."The Belle of New York".....Kerker Valse....."España".....Waldteufel Romance....."Country Moll".....Funke God Save the King.

THE departure of the Pacific Mail steamship Sibiria from San Francisco on her maiden trip across the Pacific was, to those who read in commercial development things worthy of serious thought, something spectacular, says the American Asiatic. Forty years ago not the barest promise of commerce, and only a city there just realizing an Orient was existent. To-day the Sibiria burns its hundred tons of coal a day on the Pacific, proving to the world the greatness of American institutions, and in absolute truth, racing with the steamships of another nation. The Pacific's greatest exponent to-day is the 20-knot Sibiria cutting towards Japan. Day by day the Trans-Atlantic-Trans-American-Trans-Pacific way to the Great East is proving the dream of Columbus of the western route to Cathay.

It will be interesting to know the full details of the plans going forward in Oriental countries for the great exposition of the Mississippi. Japan has made definite plans for a complete industrial exhibit, and it is hoped the delayed government appropriation will be forthcoming at the next Diet. The Philippines will be represented in a perfect way, with a complete industrial, agricultural and mining display. China has also promised an exhibit. It will be fortunate if China's exhibit is a perfect representation of her industry. Business interests in the United States will expect to find at St. Louis specimens of the richest arts of China. The exposition will provide certain means of practical business display. China's export has not kept pace in lines distinctly her own, with the export of Japan. As a practical business matter, no country in the Orient can afford to ignore St. Louis, says the American Asiatic. Singapore pineapples should be exhibited as well as Japanese ceramics.

THE CHIT CURSE.

It was an ancient resident, And he stood on the Bridge of Spain, And he feebly wailed; "The 'I shelter lack, Tho' the clothes be tattered upon my back, I'll never sign chits again."

I stopped and peered in his time scarred face, And tenderly pressed his hand; As I murmured, "I see you have suffered much, In the merciless coils of the Chit-fiend's clutch; The curse of a pleasant land."

"Now list to me, and I'll tell," quoth he, As he furively dropped a tear; "How my deb's have outrun my income small, By a hundred dollars a month, and all Through the signing of chits for beer."

"I signed a chit for the drinks I drank I signed for the lunch I ate; It seemed so easy to sign one's name No cash was needed to play the game, So I signed chits early and late."

"A chit I signed for my board and bed; I signed for my clothes and food; I signed, and signed, and signed, and signed, With never a cursory glance behind To see how my balance stood."

"I was captured once by fierce ladrones Who put a price on my head; But seeing I had no money to pay, The leader who knew of four ways said, 'Say! We'll take your chit instead!'"

The United States.

LONDON, 12th May.
President Roosevelt speaking at Watsonville, California, said that during the present century, the Pacific, where America already holds a commanding position, must pass under American influence; this would involve a great burden and responsibility but that was the price of greatness which only a craven nation would object to paying.

Communication with the Far East.

Mr. Austen Chamberlain, in the House of Commons, said that the Siberian Railway offered a speedier regular service (for the mail) he would be obliged to utilize it and that he was in communication with the authorities with a view to the transmission of a service to Peking and the Far East. As yet no agreement had been reached.

THE NEW MACHINE-GUNS

AT TONKING.

A correspondent writes:—Trials were made recently at Fonay (Tonking) of the new machine-guns which were served out a short time ago to each European infantry battalion. The new gun, which is manufactured by the Hotchkiss repeating arms Company, bears a strong resemblance to our Maxim. It is fixed on a portable tripod and uses the same cartridge as the French army rifle, (9 millimetre).

The rate of fire was about 20 shots per second, but the weapon jammed frequently and it was sometimes necessary to replace pieces of the breech mechanism before firing could be resumed. This was probably owing to the fact that these parts are too light and delicate to support the severe strain created by the rapid and repeated concussions. The extractors were for the most part the cause of these breakdowns, and it is probable that these are much too highly tempered to withstand the continued shock. I am informed that during similar trials, which took place a short time ago in France, the same defects came to light, so it would seem that this new weapon can hardly be declared a complete success, as is the case with the 75 millimetre q. f. field gun now adopted.

THE COLLISION IN THE INLAND SEA.

As already reported by us a disastrous collision, involving heavy loss of life, occurred off Nobutsuna Island on the night of the 1st inst. The Hayami Maru, a small steamer of 121 tons, which has been running between Ujina and Misogahama, Shikoku, left the former port at 7 o'clock on Friday evening and everything went well until 11 p.m., when passing between Nobutsuna and Mutsuki Islands she was run down by the Korean steamer Kanji (790 tons) which left Kobe on Friday morning. The vessels exchanged whistles several times, but for some reason at present unexplained the warnings failed to avert a collision and the Hayami was cut into and went down in five minutes. There were seventy-two passengers on board the ill-fated vessel. Forty-three of these and the whole crew (14 in all) were saved by boats lowered from the Korean steamer and by swimming to the steamer. They were conveyed to Misogahama, but two of the rescued passengers succumbed immediately after their arrival there. In all twenty-nine passengers are missing.

STRANGE EXPLOSION AT SEA.

The captain of the steamer Vima, which arrived at Marseilles recently, reported that when the vessel was thirty miles east of Creux, at the entrance to the Gulf of Lyons, the men on watch heard an explosion, and saw an immense tongue of flame leap upwards. The strange phenomenon lasted from fifteen to twenty seconds. At the same time the ship recoiled from a violent shock, as if she had struck a rock. The captain was at a loss to account for the phenomenon, and did not know whether it was due to the sudden explosion of a vessel, which sank immediately, or to the eruption of a submarine volcano. At the marine headquarters at Marseilles it is supposed that the bright light may have proceeded from an explosion on board the Tambora, of the West African Company, which left Marseilles a few days ago with a large cargo of explosive materials. The hour at which the phenomenon was witnessed would coincide with the supposed route of the Tambora.

THE SITUATION IN KWANGSI.

In order to ward off the calamity of another foreign aggression, great opposition has been raised by the Chinese people against the attempts Governor Wang Chih-chun of Kwangsi is reported to have made to borrow money and troops from the French, for the suppression of the troubles in the province, says the Sin Wun Pao. But according to a telegram received here from Governor Wang Chih-chun, all the reports about him in this matter were entirely unfounded. While it is necessary to be on our guard against foreign aggression, we must not overlook the fact that the peace of Kwangsi largely depends upon a good civil administration of the province. It will be in vain to expect a lasting peace after the suppression of the insurrection, if the civil administration be faulty. Therefore the first duty of the Governor of Kwangsi after bringing the present state of the province to an end is to re-organise the civil administration properly.

The rebellion in Kwangsi did not originate in an anti-feeling against foreigners in general or against foreign missionaries in particular. Nor did it arise, as it is believed by many people, from a desire of the insurgents to upset the existing Manchu Government. The insurgents have not been carrying on their work on any fixed principle; nor are they very closely united among themselves. They are made up of small bands of robbers who create disturbance merely because they want to get a living by means of it. All this is the direct result of a bad civil administration.

We are delighted with the news, sent here by Governor Wang Chih-chun, that order and peace have been brought back to Kwangsi, but, as he fears, that there may still be some elements of unrest lying under the surface, he will wait until he feels sure that the pacification has been really completed before reporting the matter to the Throne. But we fear that the so-called completion of the pacification of the province is not reliable, and that if it is reliable, a lasting peace cannot be expected unless the province is hereafter properly and well administered. In order to achieve this good end, the Governor of Kwangsi should see that industrial institutes all over the province are established, all the uncultivated lands are opened and all the mineral resources are developed, so that all the people may have work to do.

RUSSIAN COLLIERIES IN MANCHURIA.

Since her occupation of Manchuria Russia has discovered there, after strenuous exertions, a number of rich coal mines and has been assiduously working them, with the result that exportation of the Mitsui's Mikko coal to Port Arthur, which amounted to 600,000 tons the year before last, recently decreased to 100,000 tons. This decrease is all the more noticeable in view of the fact that the consumption of coal at Port Arthur must have considerably increased owing to the augmentation of the Russian squadron and to the completion of the Chinese Eastern Railway. There is indeed, some reason for Russia to feel sorry at leaving Manchuria, observes the China Gazette.

BISHOP BOURDON.

The Rt. Rev. Bishop Bourdon has celebrated his seventieth birthday, and his many friends throughout Burma and the Far East will rejoice to learn that the anniversary found that kindest of churchmen in the best of health and the happiest of spirits. Of the sixty-nine years which the Bishop has completed in this world, forty have been spent as a missionary in the East—the last fourteen of them being in Singapore. Charles Arsene Bourdon was born at Sees in Normandy—the birth place of St. Osmond, Bishop of Salisbury ten centuries ago—on May 1st, 1831, and having joined the priesthood, he was appointed a missionary to Burma and sent to the East. He served in Rangoon from 1863 to 1870. In 1872 he was appointed Bishop of Dardania and Vicar Apostolic of Mandalay—a position which he filled with distinction until 1887, when he was compelled to resign on account of ill health. He then went home to France for a while, after which he returned to the East—proceeding to Hongkong, whence he came to Singapore in 1889, on the invitation of Bishop Garner. Since then he has filled the post of Roman Catholic Military Chaplain and R. C. Chaplain to the General Hospital. He has also assisted the Bishop in various episcopal capacities. Many will rejoice to learn that he entered upon his sevenieth year as hale and hearty in health as any man of fifty.

GOLD SOVEREIGNS.

In the House of Commons recently, Sir John Lang asked the Secretary of State for India: Whether information has been obtained from India enabling him to state in round numbers how many sovereigns have been paid into the Indian treasuries for land revenue customs, or other fiscal payments, since gold coin was made legal tender at the rate of Rs. 15; also, for the same period, what number of sovereigns have been paid out at the same rate by the departments for the local purchases of materials, stores, salaries, interest, and other State obligations.

Lord G. Hamilton: Since gold has been made a legal tender in India, 25,282,000 sovereigns have been received in gold by the Government of India; 18,825,000 have been issued, of which 2,000,000 were shipped to England, and 11,825,000 were issued to the public. I am not able to give the figures showing the nature of the several transactions in which gold has been used, but I will inquire from the Government of India whether any record has been kept from which any classification such as the hon. gentleman desires can be prepared.

TIENSIN.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

TIENSIN, May 4th.

In my letters in the past I have frequently alluded in flattering terms to Wu Jim Pah, or Wu Man Ting as his official name has it, the comprador of the Hongkong and Shanghai Bank. He is an astute man of business, and a thorough believer in foreign enterprises in which he invests largely; but he would not be a Chinese, to say nothing of a shrewd business man if he did not believe in himself and his own interests. When the Salt Commissioner and Tong T'ai-tai came forward a few weeks ago with their scheme for a special issue of notes which should be accepted by the foreign banks, it fell through because of the Edict issued last year disavowing all responsibility on the part of the Throne for all such transactions, and Wu was strongly opposed to the proposals. Within the past week Wu Mao Ting, and Wang Ming Wei, the comprador of the Russo-Chinese Bank, have both been appointed co-directors of commercial affairs in Tientsin, and we now find Wu himself introducing a plan which does not very materially differ from the first, and which is still open to the objection of possible government repudiation. He is now trying to get this carried through, but I don't think he will succeed, and the foreign banks will be exceedingly short-sighted if they agree to it. It is not so much the question of the million and a half taels which the arrangement represents, but the serious doubt whether any practical good would come of it. It is at best but a tinkering up of a leaking vessel. The circulation once more of native orders of good credit might, it is true, release the overstocks of import cargo with which the godowns are stuffed; but, if there is no silver with which to realize on those orders, the outcome of the situation must eventually be a return to the starting point. The silver temporarily released from the foreign banks in cashing these orders must inevitably find its way back to them. The movement is futile, because there are other conditions apparently hampering the life-blood circulation of trade, which alone can relieve the market. In some quarters the new proposals are regarded with the utmost confidence; but, I think you will find them come to naught. In substance Mr. Wu's plan is as follows:—

1. The free circulation of native bank orders as formerly.
2. That the Viceroy's official bank become responsible for the native banks properly constituted.
3. That the foreign banks recognize the native orders providing native banks produce security satisfactory to their compradors.
4. That all such native orders bear the chop of the official bank.
5. That the official bank and foreign bank compradors be jointly responsible for any irregularities in these bank orders.
6. That the Viceroy be security for Tls. 300,000 for each of the five leading native banks.
7. That title deeds of property belonging to these banks be lodged with the foreign banks if necessary, under certain conditions.

I was talking the other day with a very intelligent missionary from the interior, and he says there is undoubtedly a strong impression among the country-folk that the Government really did secretly approve of what the Boxers did and tried to do. When the city was first restored to the Chinese, the Viceroy, as I think I mentioned at the time, issued a proclamation that there were to be no charges and counter-charges between converts and Boxers or their supporters, etc., and as the object was to avert an endless number of cases which it would take a young life-time to settle, but little heed was paid to it by the majority of foreigners. A few missionaries, however, pointed out to the Viceroy that it would be regarded as a species of championship by the Boxers, especially as several were coming back to the city; one, as an instance, being a well-to-do man, against whom there was a charge of quadruple murder. They showed how such men would naturally fear a declaration like this into a desire to shield the guilty. The Viceroy appeared to see the force of this reasoning, for to remedy the first proclamation he hastened to issue a second, which was excellent. It promised unconditional execution to all and sundry who collected a crowd or following for the purpose of spreading wild superstitious doctrines, and cautioned the Boxers that there must be none of their nonsense in the future. But the mischief was done. The first appeared to the people the voluntary outspokenness of sympathy; the second a mere conventional obligation to expediency, and the result is that an under-current or anti-convert sentiment keeps the countryside ripe for any mischief. On the other hand Chow Fu in Shantung issued a proclamation that Boxers or their supporters would only be tolerated in the land providing some Christians and a gentry would stand security for their good conduct. This placed the Boxer element under obligation to the Christians, and gave the Christians a sense of responsibility for those who through their means had escaped the gallows. The system I am told works well, and the people are on the best of terms.

CHIANG SHIH HSING, Censor and Proctor of the Peking University, is most incensed by the demands Russia made on China and it is reported that he has presented a memorial strongly advising the Throne not to accede to them under any circumstances. It is also reported that Grand Councillor Wang Wen-sha has definitely resolved not to give consent to the Russian conditions as they would certainly involve China in trouble with other countries. It is further reported that the Viceroy and Governors along the coast and the River have also wired to the Government urging them not to agree to the Russian demands.

CANTON NOTES.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

Canton, May 13th, 1903.

THE FAMINE.

Many of the Chinese are making contributions to the Famine Relief Fund. If the Chinese were assured that all money subscribed would be distributed under foreign supervision the contributions would be much larger. The U. S. Consul-General has taken an active interest in the work from the beginning. He has collected a large sum on Shamen and from personal Chinese friends. The U. S. Monterey also made a liberal contribution. The U. S. Consul-General's own contribution was not a small sum. Letters and telegrams have been received in Canton calling for volunteers to take charge of distributing centres. In response to the appeal Dr. Shumaker and Rev. Mr. Gaff have gone and two or three other missionaries will soon follow them. A letter from Mr. Fee who has done much work in the neighbourhood of Kwai Ping says "The famine increases in severity as most of the people are at the end of their resources having disposed of everything that can be disposed of in return for much or little money."

THE PLAGUE.

There is still a good deal of plague in the city. One would think that the dirtiest parts of the city would be where the plague is the worst. This is not the case at present. The rich west end is one of the sections where plague is the worst. Many of the large streets are decorated with blue lanterns. The plague seems to be on the increase in the country. The Shan Tak district appears to have an unusual amount of it.

THE RUSSIANS ON THE LIAO RIVER.

A Tientsin dispatch to the Asahi states that the Russian troops are mustered on both banks of the Liao River, declaring that they are guarding the mines. The Chinese General Chang is also there. On the bank of the Yalu are 4,000 mounted bandits, hired by General Chiang, and about 1,000 Russian horsemen and 5,000 infantrymen, who are making a strict examination of strangers. There are two telegraph lines in Manchuria, the eastern and western lines. The western line has been returned to the Chinese authorities, who have arranged to repair it and open communication throughout the whole of Manchuria. The eastern line still remains in the hands of Russia.

LUMBER FOR MANILA.

BIG SHIPMENTS.

Advices received from Washington, D.C., state that a call for bids for about 10,000,000 feet of lumber for shipment to the Philippines to be used in constructing barracks and other buildings there has been made. Over 18,000,000 feet of lumber on Puget Sound and at Portland for Manila have been purchased, of which the last big order was 3,900,000 feet. The Dix has just returned to Tacoma from a voyage to Manila where she took over 3,400,000 feet and 2,400 cedar doors to be used for constructing barracks. Several million feet have also been shipped from Tacoma to Manila for the government on the China Mutual Liverpool-Tacoma liners and other big shipments have been made by other steamers. With this purchase of 10,000,000 feet soon to be made, a total of nearly 30,000,000 feet will have been bought by the government within the past six months, all for constructing barracks and kindred buildings in the Philippines.

"GLENOGLE" COLLISION CASE.

From the Tacoma Daily Ledger, of the 11th ult., we take the following:—
Judge Hanford, of the federal court, handed down yesterday an opinion in admiralty in the famous libel suit of the owner of the passenger steamer City of Kingston against the British steamer Glenogle, which has been pending since 1899. The action was brought to recover damages for the destruction of the City of Kingston by a collision with the Glenogle in Tacoma harbour on the morning of April 23, 1899.

The findings and decree of the court are to the effect that the entire damages shall be equally divided. The libellant, having sustained the heaviest loss, is awarded a decree for the excess above one-half the total loss. The aggregate amount of the losses sustained by the owners of both vessels, as proved and allowed by the court, is $169,770, which, divided equally, makes the loss to each $84,885. The difference between that and the loss sustained by the libellant is $59,015, which sum is awarded to the libellant, with interest at the rate of 6 per cent from the date of the filing the libel, which was April 22, 1899, together with one-half the usual taxable costs.

The two vessels came together in a bank of fog when they were going at a high rate of speed. The owner of the City of Kingston claimed that the Glenogle was to blame for going into the fog at full speed. On the other hand, the Glenogle, as cross-libellant, claimed that the Kingston was to blame for going at full speed on a starboard helm when he could not see the Glenogle and was mistaken as to her position from the sound of the whistle. The court finds that the officers of the vessels contributed an equal number of errors leading to the collision.

The upper timbers of the Kingston did not sink and no passengers were drowned. The court finds the value of the Kingston to have been $140,000, to which is added $5,400 for claims. The wreckage is estimated at $1,500, leaving total loss at $143,900. The estimated loss to the Glenogle in detention, unloading, repairs, etc., is $25,870. All other claims of the Glenogle officers, as cross-libellant, were denied.
